

“We Need To Pray!”

Part #1

That title might be an understatement in the turbulent days we're in right now! Across our nation, violence is running rampant, our political atmosphere is growing more toxic each day, millions of people have suffered loss of some kind, due to weather related disasters, and the list goes on! It might look hopeless, but listen to what Ps. 46:1-3 says: “God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth gives way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging.” (NIV) God is still on His throne! He is waiting for His saints to cry out to Him!

Here are a few prayer points to ponder:

- Pray for all of our city, county, state and federal leaders
 - Pray they would get a divine revelation from God that their selfish, self-centered partisan political mindset is ruining our nation
 - Ask God to give them the courage to reach across the aisle, be willing to listen to one another, and to work together to make America great
 - In this critical election year, ask God to protect our politicians, their staff and especially their families
- Pray that God will help voters take their responsibility seriously and vote for what is good, right, and true.
 - Pray that God will stir up gratitude in us for the voting rights we enjoy
- As the elections draw near, ask the Lord to hold all of those in charge of the election process accountable, that He would convict them to do what's right
 - Pray He would protect the integrity of each ballot from the time it is marked, through the counting and tallying processes
 - Pray for the individual poll workers to stay focused and alert
 - Pray for the protection of all of the polling locations, and the safety of all of the poll workers
- Pray for all of our law enforcement agencies across America
 - Pray for law enforcement to be granted strength and courage to endure dangerous situations, such as unjust condemnation, physical abuse, and hard calls
 - Pray for their protection from harm while performing their duties, such as stopping crime, violence, and riots, etc.
